Leone, Daniel A., ed., The Ethics of Euthanasia. San Diego: Greenhaven Press, Inc., 1999.

This book is part of the new anthology series that focuses a wide range of viewpoints onto a single controversial issue, providing in-depth discussions by leading advocates of each perspective. Articles are uncut and footnotes and source notes are retained. Extensive book and periodical bibliographies and annotated lists of relevant organizations to contact offer a gateway to further research. This volume includes ten essays on the ethics and morality of euthanasia, potential abuse, distinctions between active and passive euthanasia, and whether euthanasia is consistent with Christian beliefs.
